SICASA HYDERABAD JOINT SECRETARY-ACADEMICS MESSAGE

Being a part of SICASA as the Joint Secretary (Academics) has been a truly enriching and transformative experience. SICASA is not just a platform for academic development, but a place where aspirations turn into achievements. It offers a unique opportunity to grow, not only in the professional domain of Chartered Accountancy but also on a personal level.

Through various initiatives, workshops, and interactions with industry experts, I have witnessed how SICASA empowers students to broaden their horizons, sharpen their skills, and step confidently toward their career goals. It is a place where dedication meets opportunity, and where every effort contributes to building a brighter future.

I firmly believe that SICASA catalyzes change, enabling individuals to evolve into the professionals they have always dreamt of becoming. I am grateful for this opportunity, and I encourage every student to actively participate and make the most of what SICASA offers.

Thandini Lokeshwarao
Joint Secretary-Academics,
SICASA Hyderabad

SICASA HYDERABAD JOINT TREASURER'S MESSAGE

Dear Fellow Friends,

It is an honor to reach out to you in my capacity as the Joint Treasurer of SICASA Hyderabad. This forum has always stood as a place where aspirations turn into action, where every voice is respected, and where ideas are given the space to grow.

My experience here has taught me that true leadership is not confined to positions, but lies in taking responsibility, listening with understanding, and supporting one another.

SICASA Hyderabad has been more than just an organization — it has been a family to us. It has enabled me to form strong connections, build meaningful professional relationships, and reach out to countless students and peers from the same profession. Through this platform, I have been able to create lasting bonds and strengthen networks that will continue to grow with us.

As your representative, my aim is clear: to nurture a student-driven platform that inspires, equips, and progresses. Be it through knowledge-sharing sessions, skill enhancement initiatives, cultural gatherings, or exam preparation assistance, I hope to create avenues for each of us to develop — not just in academics, but also in our personal and professional journeys.

Let us strive to build a community that upholds:

Progress over percentages
Knowledge over boundaries
Teamwork over rivalry
Opportunities over obstacles
Integrity over influence
Growth together over success alone

In this term, I encourage each of you to step forward, share your ideas, and contribute your strengths. Every student brings unique value, and I firmly believe that our collective efforts can make SICASA Hyderabad a truly dynamic and enriching platform for all.

Leadership is not something to be delayed for the future — it begins with the choices we make today. Let us lead together with sincerity, responsibility, and compassion, creating a community that inspires and uplifts each one of us.

Piyush Kabra
Joint Treasurer,
SICASA Hyderabad

KNOWLEDGE CORNER

Shree Krishna: The Timeless Guide to Modern Life

Shree Krishna: The Timeless Guide to Modern Life 🌟

In every whisper of the conch shell and the chime of the flute, the name Shree Krishna echoes with divinity, wisdom, and eternal relevance. More than just a deity, Krishna is a symbol of supreme consciousness and the perfect blend of love, duty, strategy, and spiritual depth.

The Multifaceted Avatar

Born in the sacred land of Mathura, Krishna's life was anything but ordinary. From the mischievous Makhan Chor of Gokul to the divine statesman of Kurukshetra, his journey teaches us that playfulness and responsibility can coexist. Whether as a divine child, a friend, a lover, or a mentor, Krishna's roles were many—but his essence remained one: Dharma in action.

The Gita's Eternal Wisdom

At the heart of Krishna's teachings lies the Bhagavad Gita—a spiritual guidebook for humanity. Its essence?

“Karmanye vadhikaraste, Ma phaleshou kadachana”

You have the right to perform your duty, not to the fruits of action.

In an era obsessed with outcomes, Krishna teaches us to focus on effort, not results—a message especially powerful for students, professionals, and seekers of balance in a chaotic world.

Krishna in Everyday Life

- In stress, Krishna is calmness.
- In dilemmas, he is clarity.
- In failure, he teaches surrender—not to defeat, but to divine timing.
- In love, he is devotion.

From managing relationships to making tough decisions, Krishna's life shows us how to lead with heart and act with purpose.

Janmashtami and Beyond

As Janmashtami approaches, we don't just celebrate the birth of a deity—we celebrate the awakening of Krishna within us. Through bhajans, fasts, and joyful celebrations, we remind ourselves of his eternal presence in our lives.

✦ Final Thought

In a fast-changing world, Shree Krishna remains the unchanging truth. His message transcends religion—it is a philosophy of life. May we all find the strength of Arjuna, the clarity of Krishna, and the peace of his flute song in our daily lives.

POEM

Operation Sindhur

On the border stood the soldier—fear never reached his name,
Facing storms or biting frost, yet his courage stayed the same.
At home, his daughter waited, his wife lit lamps through the night,
But the soldier absorbed each ache, pressed onward in the fight.

They launched Operation “Sindoor”—its roar proclaimed its might,
Each bunker firmly held, each front engaged in strife.
Sleep abandoned him, no rest remained, only passion burning bright—
“To protect India,” his heart’s fortress, his singular, sacred fight.

He took bullets, bore the wounds, yet never bowed his knee,
Draped in the tricolor on return—immortal sacrifice set free.
The daughter said, “Papa will come back,” and hopes glimmered in her eyes,
The mother said, “He’s come—yet gone,” under those bright skies.

And every tear was gently wiped when the voice rang proud and clear:
Modi himself rose to pay respects, heartfelt and sincere.
Not mere words but actions—power shown by deeds,
He shook the enemy’s aims, ensuring boundaries were freed.

From surgical strikes to satellite might,
In the Modi era, India showed its readiness and fight.
Now the martyrs’ kin need never weep alone,
For the government stands with them, their support is brightly shown.

“One soldier’s sacrifice awakens every Indian’s tears,
But with a leader like Modi at the helm,
Our nation stands confident—without fears.”

“Let Things Be”

(Poetic Perspective on human and desire, and inner peace)

The guarded wish to run away,
The open hope for love one day.
The young just want to find their way
The old remember a brighter day.
The broken wait for light to stay
The educated search for better pay.
The unknown wants a world to say
They hide from the words they say.
The poor dream big and kneel to pray
The rich feel lost in their own way.
A pilot flying far away
Wants to rest where children play.
A farm boy looks at skies so gray
Wishing to soar like birds one day.
We chase, we want, we never flee
From dreams that bloom internally.
But peace begins when we agree
To just be still and let things be!

Quiz for the day

Three friends — Anna, Ben, and Cara — each have one child. You know two facts about their children's ages:

The product of the three ages is 72.

The sum of the three ages equals the number on the door next to the house where they all live.

You walk to the house and glance at the door number, but it doesn't help — you still can't determine the three ages. Then Anna says, "My child is the oldest." After hearing that, you immediately know the ages.
